

NCC 2022 is here

Social Media Copy

The @Australian Building Codes Board has announced the National Construction Code 2022 is now available.

NCC 2022 will commence on 1 May 2023, when it's adopted by the States and Territories.

There will also be longer transition periods for the new energy efficiency and livable housing requirements.

Until then NCC 2019 Amendment 1 remains in force.
